Gillespie or Gillespie Family.

Copied in Mount Sterling, Montgomery County, Kentucky, July 26, 1939

The last will and testament of Simon Gillespie II of the county of Montgomery, State of Kentucky.

First I wish all my just debts paid.

Second I give an bequest to my beloved wife, Elizabeth Gillespie the use of the farm on which I now live during her natural life and one third of the stock and negroes. Also the house and kitchen furniture.

Third I leave all my children all equal with the exception of George Washington Gillespie who I gave $400.00 four hundred dollars more than the rest on account of services rendered.

Fourth The parts of my estate coming to my daughters Rebecca Young and Nancy Moody I wish my Executors hereafter named to retain in their hands and let out to them as they may see best.

Fifth It is my wish that the children of Andrew Simpson Gillespie have no share of my estate as I gave him his share in his life time.

I appoint George Washington Gillespie and Uriah M. Wilson my executors of this my last will and testament given under witness of hand and seal the 26th day of August 1838.

Witness

Robert B. Caldwell
Andrew Simpson

State of Kentucky, Montgomery County, February 4, 1839.

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Simon Gillespie dead was produced in court and proven by the oaths of Robert B. B. Caldwell and Andrew Simpson subscribing witnesses where to and the same was ordered to record which is done.

Attest: J. Harrison.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

"The Simpson and Gillespie families as has been told to me came from Virginia. And settled in Montgomery County, Kentucky on Hinkston Creek about eight miles from Mount Sterling, Ky. The families were neighbors. Our great-grandfather was buried on his farm in an old family burying ground. I don't know if there are any signs of graves there now as the farm has been sold so many times." written by Mayme Bramblit McIntyre, Sept. 1938. (We visited Mt. Sterling June 5, 1939. and made a copy of will.)

William Gillespie was born in Mt. Sterling, Ky. and migrated West with his family to Mo. where they spent 11 years Cooper Co. then pulled up stakes and set out to find their fortune in the territory of Kansas. The family settled in St. George Kansas and his father named the town. Later on about the time of the Civil war William and his two brothers George, Henry and John migrated to Colorado to seek their fortunes in gold. John settled in Boulder, Henry and also and William, I believe in Denver. George Gillespie followed his brother many years later after his marriage and birth of his children and settled Boulder, Colo.

Eliza Walker decided in 1857 to emigrate to Kansas with cash capital of $270 of which $200 was lost having loaned to a man who failed to repay. On arrival was hired chopping wood for government $1.00 per cord - lasted one month. On the site of Manhattan he hoed corn, took a claim and slept in a dugout from May until November. Soon afterward he was elected Registrar of Deeds for Pottawatomie County being first person to hold that office in the county 1858 to 1861 when St. George ceased to be the County seat.

Military career in Civil war, second Lieut. upon war termination received an honorable discharge, at the close of the war, Mr. Walker opened a general mercantile store in St. George in partnership with J. S. Betts. As it was about the time of the building of the Union Pacific thru this section of the county the firm had a big business. Sold out to partner, in July 1866, received appointment as Railroad Agent. In 1855 he obtained permission to build a depot at his own expense and utilized it as a warehouse buying grain until 1872. He was appointed agent in 1873 for the National Land Co. and Union Pacific Railroad to sell their land. Real Estate and Insurance business. married on 6-4-1924 in N.Y.C.

Marion Merchant Martin

born June 25, 1900 Chicago, Ill. dau. of

Clarence Howard Martin and Winifred Eva Merchant.

Wendell Hall's mother was vacationing in St. George Kansas, visiting her mother, when Wendell was born, the family were living in Decatur, Ill. Dr. Louis J. Lyman her brother-in-law, the attending physician. The family moved to Chicago when Wendell was about five years old as he started school at the Audubon while living on Eddy Street, they removed to 4211 N. Hermitage Ave, where he remained until he married in 1924. He attended Ravenswood Grammar school then left in 7th grade for Kemper Military school in Booneville Mo. He attended Lane Technical High School and graduated at the University High School. He served in World war I as a bugler, was sent overseas with six weeks training to Brest, France where he contracted the "flu" as lost track of his company, spent his time entertaining the wounded and sick soldier until he was sent home as a casual and released from the army, was a member of the 5th Anti Aircraft. He immediately went into vaudeville playing the xylophone, playing, writing and publishing his own songs. When radio appeared he immediately found it a medium to popularize his songs so after spending 2 years on E.Z.B. Chicago, he decided to go on the road covering the various radio stations singing his songs, on his arrival in New York City, ten of the recording companies were eager to publish his numbers including "It Ain't Anna Rain No No". While in New York City he signed with the Ever-ready Battery company to use radio as an advertising medium, it was the first advertising contract in radio. He traveled from coast to coast covering all the principals radio stations in United States, Canada, Hawaii, Cuba, Great Britain, including the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France.
